CAPT. MILLER DEAD.

Succumbed to Typhoid Fever—Remains Shipped to Clevelandport.

He Was Well Known in This City—Leaves Three Children.

Capt. P. S. Miller, of Clevelandport, who had been ill since the first of August at the B. & O. infirmary from typhoid fever, died yesterday morning. He had been in a precarious condition for several days, and his two daughters had been here in attendance on him, but returned when he became better.

Capt. Miller was a U. S. gauger, and came here on business, when he was stricken. His illness was not thought to be serious at first. He was formerly a well known tobacco man of Breckinridge county, and was born and reared there. He was 47 years old and leaves two married daughters and a young son. He married a Miss Lightfoot, who is a cousin to City Attorney R. T. Lightfoot, of the city.

The remains were yesterday shipped to Clevelandport for burial.

PAY TRAIN HERE.

Shop Men Will Be Paid Off To-morrow—Trade Will Be Brisk.

Depot Improvements Are Finished—Other Railroad News.

The pay train arrived this afternoon and paid off a portion of the Illinois Central employees, and the remainder will be paid off tomorrow. The stores will be open tonight and tomorrow night, and trade will doubtless be brisk.

Improvements on the Union depot have been finished, and it is very neat and trim looking. All the interior and outside woodwork has been painted, and every desired improvement has been made. The same is true of the dispatcher's office and other buildings in the yards.

Auditor West went up the Illinois Central this morning on official business, and returned this afternoon.

Route Agent Robinson, of the American Express company, left this morning for Kraser, Tenn., a few miles from Memphis, to establish a relay station for the transfer of express matter. This is rendered necessary by the stringent quarantine regulations.

FROM KLONDIKE.

Five Laborers on the Water Company's Barge are Just Back.

J. G. Falcon is the name of a man just back from Klondike. He and four companions returned from the land of ice, snow and gold, almost impoverished by their experience, and are now at work on the water works barge which will be used in the suction cleaning.

The tell blood curdling tales of their adventures, and what they had to suffer, and if one had any idea of going there, and would first consult them, he would doubtless quickly change his mind. In addition to nearly losing their lives several times, the party lost several thousand dollars, which they took with them to help make a fortune. It was with great difficulty that they were able to ever reach this country again. Their stories of hardship and destitution would only be a repetition of those told every day in the papers by returning wanderers.

MORE SOLDIERS FOR MERRITT.

Five Regiments Now at San Francisco Will Go to Manila Immediately to Help Keep Order.

General Aguinaldo Sends a Cable Message to America Saying That All Is Lovely Over There.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Orders were issued today to send five regiments of troops now at San Francisco to Manila, at once. They will sail immediately. This order is given because of disquieting news about the insurgents.

General Aguinaldo has addressed a cable message to the American people today saying that there is no friction at all between his followers and the American troops, and that they have only the kindest feelings for the Americans. All the Filipinos want is a deliverance from Spanish rule.

WAR CLOUD RISES.

Turks in the Island of Crete Are Surrendering Their Arms.

No Trouble Is Apprehended in the Settlement of the Question Now.

Candia, Crete, Sept. 19.—The Turks are surrendering their arms in obedience to the orders of Admiral Noel. It is now believed that the most serious phase of the trouble is over and that the admiral will not be compelled to bombard this city.

STILL A MYSTERY.

Bridgeport, Conn., Sept. 19.—The mystery surrounding the remains of the murdered girl is still unsolved.

AFTER ESTERHAZY.

His Confessions in the Dreyfus Case May Set the Mob On Him.

The Revision Was Decided Upon Only After a Lively Time Saturday Night.

Paris, Sept. 19.—Count Esterhazy is in danger of a mob and it is feared that his residence will be attacked tonight. His alleged confession to the Dreyfus case is the cause.

According to newspaper accounts, Premier Brisson, was only able to get a revision ordered at Saturday's cabinet council, though supported by eight of his colleagues, after a tough fight against Gen. Zurlinden and M. Tillaye, the minister of public works, who were warmly supported for three hours by President Faure himself.

SECRETARY ALGER

Is Inspecting the Military Camp at Fort Thomas Today.

Will Hold a Grand Review of the Troops Tomorrow at Lexington.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 19.—Secretary of War Alger is today inspecting the camp at Ft. Thomas, just over the river in Kentucky.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 19.—Preparations are being made for a grand review of all the troops here tomorrow in honor of Secretary of War Alger.

FEVER SITUATION.

No More Cases Today at New Orleans.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 19.—There are no new yellow fever cases today. The outside quarantine against this city is hurting business a great deal.

7TH. DISTRICT REPUBLICANS.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 19.—The republican committee of the Seventh district will meet here Saturday and name a day for the congressional convention.

HARD ON TORAL.

Madrid, Sept. 19.—The minister of war has decided that Gen. Toral, who surrendered the Spanish forces at Santiago must be court-martialed.

DEFEATED AGAIN.

Barboursville, Ky., Sept. 19.—Judge Eversole was nominated for circuit judge by the republicans at the primary Saturday.

The defeated candidate was Hon. J. H. Wilson, who was a candidate for both the positions of district attorney for Kentucky and assistant district attorney and lost out in both.

JOHN W. BREATHITT.

The President Today Appointed Him Postmaster at Hopkinsville.

Washington, Sept. 19.—The president today appointed John W. Breathitt postmaster of Hopkinsville.

GERMANY SCHEMING

For a Foothold in the Philippines—Has Been Investigating the Coal Deposits on Island of Cebu.

And the President Will Not Allow Spain to Dispose of Territory—Warships Go to Manila.

Washington, Sept. 19.—It is believed that Germany has been scheming to take a hand in the disposition of the Philippines. The authorities at Washington have learned that, acting under instructions from Berlin, the German commander-in-chief of the Asiatic squadron has been investigating the coal deposits of the islands. This has been considered of sufficient importance to be laid before the peace commission. The president does not propose to allow Germany to secure any of the Philippines or to permit Spain to dispose of any territory in the far east, and has instructed the commission to demand of Spain reversionary rights in the islands for the United States.

It is no longer a secret that Germany is the only nation from which the government apprehends trouble in the settlement of the Philippine question, and it was to avert the commitment of an overt act that the president determined to strengthen Rear Admiral Dewey's command to such an extent as to make it the superior of the German fleet in Asiatic waters.

The battleships Oregon and Iowa will start for Manila via Cape Horn and Honolulu on next Saturday or Sunday, by which time it is expected that all repairs will have been made and the fleet of colliers will be in readiness.

WINNIE DAVIS DEAD

After Several Weeks' Illness of Malarial Gas-tritis.

Relapse Came Saturday Night and At Sunday Noon Death Relieved Her Suffering.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., Sept. 19.—Miss Winnie Davis, daughter of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, died Saturday afternoon at the Rockingham hotel, to which place she came as a guest in the early part of the Pier's social season. She had been ill for several weeks, and a fortnight ago her ailment was diagnosed as malarial gas-tritis.

Miss Winnie Davis, the "Daughter of the Confederacy," was born in the confederate executive mansion at Richmond, Va., in 1863. She was educated principally at home, owing to the trouble surrounding her father and the publicity which attended all movements of the Davis family. She was her father's constant companion. She assisted him in all his work and much of the information which was required by Mr. Davis in his writings was secured for him by his daughter. Her strong character was marked from youth. She was engaged to Mr. Wilkerson, of Syracuse, N. Y., but shortly after her father's death the engagement was broken off. While no public explanation of the rupture was given it is well known that it was for the purpose of maintaining her father's name. She received the name "Daughter of the Confederacy" in 1886, when her father made his famous trip through the south. Mrs. Davis being unable to appear, Miss Winnie was brought before the thousands at the different points along the route and introduced as the daughter of the confederacy.

Marshal Collins and Officer C. B. Lecher leave on the packet today for Evansville on a brief visit to Chief Lehar, of that place. Needless to say, they will enjoy themselves as only Kentucky boys can when they get away from the cares of their official duties.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

The Mayor Evolves a New Plan for Street Improvements—Wants to Issue Bonds and Improve All.

The City Cannot Compel Saloons to Close at 11 P. M. Is the Legal Opinion—Other Notes of a New Year Nature.

Mayor Lang is formulating his plan of street improvements for next year, and has decided on a plan quite different from any heretofore suggested along this line. He is of the opinion that the present system of street improvements, on account of the parsimonious allowance of the council for the work, is thoroughly inadequate, and will never enable the city to maintain all of its streets in good repair. He thinks the city needs money enough to place the streets in repair all over the city at the same time, and to do it right. He first thought of making an effort to place asphalt on Broadway from Seventh to the river and vitrified brick on the cross streets, but in his new plan, he has decided on the use of gravel. In the adoption of the plan, he will of course have to have the co-operation of the people and council.

This is to issue bonds for $100,000, and out of this amount place the streets in the proper condition and build a new market house. The bonded indebtedness of Paducah is now $345,000, and under the charter may be nearly $700,000. Bonds can be floated at 3 1/2 per cent.

The first thing to do will be to put in sub-drainage, which will do away entirely with the present abominable gutters, and widen the streets at least six feet.

As to the material, the mayor has decided not to abandon Paducah gravel. He says that there has never been found a street material that has proven entirely satisfactory in building streets. Asphalt is the nearest thing to a satisfactory street material, but it is used largely by cities that can readily procure no gravel. It would cost about $25,000 to place asphalt on Broadway from Seventh to the river.

The mayor sometime ago saw in a country road, where a bucket of tar had been spilled, and has since been watching the place. He says that the road and gravel have worn away from all around the spot, but it is as hard and solid as a rock where the tar touched it. This led him to believe that some combination can be made from gravel and coal tar, which will give Paducah good and durable streets, and he will in the near future experiment by laying some sort of some street with a mixture of gravel and tar.

The street question will not come up for sometime, but the plans that are being considered in advance will no doubt be of interest to the public. If bonds are issued, they will of course have to be voted by the people. It is claimed by the advocates of the plan that the amount paid for interest would be saved on the cost of maintaining the streets, in addition to affording us better streets.

The question of requiring all the saloons to close at 11 o'clock p. m. is the latest one to agitate the minds of the people, and yesterday several ministers mentioned and advocated it in their respective pulpits. It was never brought up until the recent tragedy as a result of which one man lost his life.

To those who have never heard much about the matter, however, it might be said that it is all talk. In the first place Mayor Lang thinks the city cannot under the terms of the license, require the saloons to close at 11 o'clock at night any more readily than it can require them not to open at all. In the second place, the city does not desire them to close at 11 o'clock p. m., and a majority of the council is opposed to it. One of the members stated to the writer that if the saloons were closed, all the trade that now goes there would be driven to worse places, and in addition all the saloons would take out restaurant licenses, which would still enable them to keep open as they chose. The only way the city can accomplish the above closing of saloons at 11 p. m. would be by amending the license the saloon keepers are required to give. This cannot be done for quite a while.

Mayor Thompson and three of the councilmen from Henderson were in the city Saturday afternoon inspecting the streets, and the gravel used on them. They did not remain long, returning in the evening. Mayor Thompson is a very young looking man, and a very pleasant one.

There is that prevailing dullness in police circles which is invariably incident to the session of a grand jury. The police all complain of dull times, and find little to occupy their attention. Many of the worst characters have left the city, through fear of being called before the grand jury or indicted by it, and this leaves the city free of many of its most menacing citizens.

Marshal Collins and Officer C. B. Lecher leave on the packet today for Evansville on a brief visit to Chief Lehar, of that place. Needless to say, they will enjoy themselves as only Kentucky boys can when they get away from the cares of their official duties.

There are three gangs at work on the streets, the chain gang and the two hired gangs. One of the latter is at work in Mechanicsburg and the chain gang is on Jackson street.

Night Chief Hoover has recovered sufficiently to resume his duties, and was at work last night for the first time in several days.

Attorney Harris, for Tom Hannon, who was given nine years for killing Will Hall, made a motion for a new trial in the circuit court this morning.

That council made tonight in regular session, and several important matters are to come up for consideration. The ordinance relative to sewerage connections will doubtless be introduced, and the sanitary and sewerage committees meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock to agree on some changes in the ordinance. The telephone franchise ordinance will be introduced for first passage, providing for the sale of a franchise. The contract to furnish the city coal for a year will be awarded to the lowest bidder. A petition from the board of health asking that the council enact an ordinance allowing Health Officer Milam 25 cents for each health certificate will be defeated. Other matters will also be discussed, and the indications are for a lively meeting.

City Attorney R. T. Lightfoot returned yesterday from Crest Springs somewhat improved in health. He had been away for a week.

FINE OPERA.

The Celebrated Gran Company Opens Tomorrow Night.

It Will Present "Said Pasha"—A Large Attendance Is Promised.

Lovers of fine opera will tomorrow night and the night following have an opportunity to satisfy their craving. The Gran Opera company begins a two days' engagement tomorrow evening in "Said Pasha," with Mr. Geo. Brown, the celebrated baritone, in the title role.

A great many people have asked why the Gran company came here to open its season. The reason is simply that its first engagement is at New Orleans for six weeks, and it is desired to get a good, suitable local city for rehearsal, and wrote Manager Terrell, who offered them such rates and other inducements that they came at once to Paducah. From New Orleans they go to San Francisco, hence it will be seen, it is not small cities that the company plays. In fact, the Gran company is one of the largest and best in the United States, and all who attend the productions here will be amply repaid, and be enabled to hear the first comic opera that has been here for years. On the evening following, the company will present "Falala," one of the most musical and attractive operas on the stage.

The Gran company cannot fail to give the best of satisfaction. Its wardrobe is one of the finest on any stage, and is in itself worth going to see. Manager Terrell is entitled to great credit for securing such an attraction, and the people should evidence their appreciation by a liberal patronage.

The seats went on sale at Van Culin's this morning, and are going rapidly. The cast for tomorrow is:

"Said Pasha".....Geo. Brown, baritone Harem Boy.....Raymond Langford, tenor
Fatma.....Mary Davies, soprano
Harem Girl.....Dan Young, soprano
Nokoy.....Stanley Feich, baritone
Harem Girl.....Maurice Welch, soprano
The Queen.....Fannie Meyers, soprano
The Queen.....Adelle Farrington, soprano
Eliab.....Gertrude Lodge, soprano

The chorus is composed of 28 voices, and all are professional singers of ability. The cast for Wednesday will be published tomorrow.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Early Long and Harry Hodge Get Two Years Each.

The Weekly Case Was Called This Morning—No Grand Jury Report.

Early Long and Harry Hodge, the colored boys who stole two bicycles, and were caught with them at Mayfield, were tried this morning in the circuit court and convicted, being given two years each in the penitentiary.

The case against George Weekly, charged with detaining a woman, was next called. It is about the fourth time Weekly has been charged with the offense, and he has always managed to get out every time.

This morning the witnesses in five or six cases did not answer when called, and Judge Husbands ordered attachments issued against twenty-five or more of them.

HORSE THIEF IDENTIFIED.

Mr. Isaac Wilson Arrives From Illinois, and Has a Look at Andy Newmann, in Jail for Horse Stealing.

He Is the Same Man Who Stole Mr. Wilson's as Well as Mr. Futrell's Buggy and Horse.

Mr. Isaac Wilson, a liveryman, of Danvers, McClung county, Ill., and Mr. Geo. S. Johnson, of Haywood, Tenn., arrived here this morning. The latter is a witness in the horse stealing case against Andy Newmann, who was arrested in Missouri and brought here last week on a charge of stealing Mr. E. Futrell's horse and selling it there.

Mr. Wilson came to identify Newmann as the man who hired a horse and buggy from him three weeks ago, and never returned. The rig was traced to Bloomington, Ill., and there it was left all night in a stable by John Welkins, who was arrested at the same time, after being wounded with Mr. Futrell's buggy in his possession. He gave Newmann away, and the latter was also arrested. Welkins is now in jail in Illinois, McClung county.

Mr. Wilson readily identified the man in jail here as the one who hired the horse from him, saying he was going to Bloomington to attend the fair. He and Mr. Futrell had a conversation with him, but Newmann denies he was the man. Welkins is the one who had the horse when it was put up at Bloomington, but Newmann seems to be the man who stole it.

Mr. Johnson will remain here until the trial comes up, but Mr. Wilson will return home.

Mr. Futrell's buggy was fairly riddled with bullets, six loads of buckshot being fired at Welkins while in pursuit of him. He was wounded. The grand jury here has not yet returned an indictment against Newmann.

There were 122 members of the Third regiment absent without leave on Sept. 18th.

ATTORNEY WILL SMITH.

He May Be a Candidate for Attorney General.

Saturday's Louisville Times said: Ex-District Attorney W. M. Smith left for Washington this afternoon on business connected with the treasury department. In conversation with Times reporter just prior to his departure Mr. Smith left the impression that he would make the race for attorney general in Kentucky. He declined, however, to make an announcement that would be in the nature of a commitment.

"I have been carefully looking over the field," said he, "and I think that if I decide to enter the race I will win. I am unable to reach a conclusion at this time, but I expect before long to decide the matter, and to announce my determination to my friends through the newspapers one way or the other. In the meantime, I am receiving every warm assurance of support in case I decide to run."

ROSH-HASHANA.

Hebrew Churches Observe The Jewish New Year.

The Jewish New Year was observed fittingly with services in all the synagogues and temples Saturday morning. The business houses conducted by Hebrews were closed on account of the holiday.

The services properly began Saturday night, when the ceremony of blowing the ram's horn was observed. It signified the triumphant blast of Israel, while the new year commenced the delivery of the Decalogue on Mt. Sinai to the children of Israel. The day is one of feasting and rejoicing, and the Hebrew families interchanged social calls.

Nine days later comes the feast of atonement, which is observed as a day of fasting and prayer.

AL WINFREY OUT.

Albert Winfrey, a private in Co. K, who was committed to jail on a capias last week, was released this morning, and will return at once to Lexington. Noble Boatwright, another private, is in the city on a furlough.

WANTS TO RETURN.

A Chinaman Will Shortly Be Admitted to This Country.

Papers Forwarded to Him in Alaska Several Days Ago.

Yuen Poo Lung, a Chinaman who left Paducah before the exclusion act, to get some money due him, now desires to return, and is in Alaska trying to get back. He has a relative here, in the laundry business, who is making every effort to get his kinsman back, and will doubtless be successful.

United States commissioner forwarded the necessary papers a few weeks ago, and today sent the final documents, and the celestial is expected as soon as he can make the trip.

TO THE CITIZENS OF PADUCAH

November 16th the Memphis annual conference will hold its fifty-ninth session in our city. It met here in 1851, 1867, 1875 and 1885. There are 270 delegates, besides wives and visitors. We need at least 500 homes. They come from every part of West Tennessee and West Kentucky. It is a great thing for Paducah to entertain such a body. Its influence on the city cannot be measured, no better advertisement for our place is possible than to give royal entertainment to these men and women.

I therefore ask that you assist in this work. Through the kindness of your pastors, on Sunday, October 2nd, the following card will be given you, which you will please fill out and put in the collection box. This will save the committee hard work, and will be greatly appreciated.

Thanking you in advance for your co-operation, I am

Very truly yours,

H. B. JOHNSON,

POLICE COURT.

Only a Few Cases Before Judge Sanders This Morning.

Ada Moss, Colored, Went Free—Other Proceeding of the Court.

George Petty, colored, was charged with petty larceny in the police court this morning. He had a pair of pants he had bought from Barksdale, and paid a dollar on. He took them before they were paid for, and they had him arrested. The warrant was dismissed.

Ada Moss, colored, was charged with having a difficulty with Hattie Johnson, a white woman, at the Heeneberger house. They had trouble over a mirror, at which both wanted to arrange their hair. Hattie got there first, Ada got there next, and so did Hattie, and the latter demanded the return of her hair, which she had loaned Ada. The latter said she didn't have it, whereupon the other said she could have it if she was that bad off to steal. They began to pull hair and push each other, and the white woman had the other arrested. The colored woman told Judge Sanders that the other woman used morphine and cocaine and when asked if she used it, replied "No, she never had a sniff in my life, I didn't." Judge Sanders dismissed both cases.

Elia Piles and Gussie Rhodes, of a West Court street house, had a fight at the table yesterday, and the fight woman threw a glass at the other and cut her head with it. They were arraigned in the police court this morning and fined $10 and costs and $5 and costs respectively.

Arthur Crawford was arrested for taking another express driver's wagon away, and then drawing a knife on him when he accosted him about it. The evidence showed that he carried the wagon off through mistake, and the warrant was dismissed.

The case against John A. Vasseur, charged with obtaining money by false pretenses, was continued until 5 o'clock this afternoon on account of absent witnesses.

A young man named Wm. Sanders, a stranger, was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

Tony Iseman was fined $5 for a breach of the peace.

HOW TO HAVE A CLEAR SKIN FREE FROM PIMPLES.

To be beautiful and have a fair skin, you must have pure blood and good health. To do so, purify the blood and build up the health with the best Tonic and Blood Purifier of the age, Botanic Blood Balm ("B. B. B."). It is the old standard and reliable remedy. It never fails to cure all manner of Blood and Skin diseases, including pimples which are caused by poison in the blood.

POSITIVE PROOF.

A lady friend of mine has for several years been troubled with bumps and pimples on her face and neck, for which she used various cosmetics in order to remove them and beautify and improve the complexion; but these local applications were only temporary, and left her skin in a worse condition. I recommended an internal preparation—known as Botanic Blood Balm ("B. B. B.") which I have been using and selling; she used three bottles and all pimples have disappeared; her skin is soft and smooth and her general health much improved. She expresses herself much gratified, and can recommend it to all who are thus affected.

Mrs. S. M. Wilson, Iron Mountain, Texas, Blood Balm ("B. B. B."), $1.00 per large bottle, all druggists. Send for book free. Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

SOLICITORS WANTED.

Ladies and gentlemen, for our complete sets of Juvenile Books for the holidays. Each set has four books graded for little ones to grown up folks. Each book charming, delightful, captivating. Prices range from 50c to $2.50. Large books, each overflowing with happy illustrations. Tremendous success. Nothing like them. Four months golden harvest for energetic workers. Credit given. Freight paid. Biggest commission. Outfit with samples of all missions.

Teacher—Once upon a time there were two rich men, one of whom made his fortune by honest industry, while the other made his by fraud. Now, which of these two men would you prefer to be?

Tommy (after slight hesitation)—Which made the most money!

THE SCHOOLS.

The Average Attendance for Last Week Was Large.

The Schools Are in a Crowded Condition, But Relief Is Promised.

The exact enrollment of the public schools is still a matter of doubt, but the average attendance last week was 2118, 1896 white and 502 colored. This is an increase over the average attendance the first week last year of 141 white, but a decrease of 33 colored, or a net increase of 108 in the attendance.

The matter of employing or electing another teacher for the first grade at the South Side school will be decided by the board at a called meeting to be held tonight.

The number of entrance cards issued today was quite large. Supt. McRobson was busy at it nearly all the forenoon.

BREVITIES OF FUN.

"Where is your fiancé? I saw him come in here two hours ago." "He has been with papa, confessing his debts."—Filigree Blatter.

"Lucky for Her."—"Poor Mrs. Gibbles can't hear more than half her husband says to her." "That's all right; she oughtn't to."—Chicago Record.

"Be virtuous," said the good one, "and you will be happy." "Do you regard happiness and eccentricity as synonymous?" asked the bad one.—Town Topics.

"Why doesn't that English girl come on deck and be wooed by the breezes too?" She—"Her mother won't let her. She heard the captain say this was a trade wind."—Harlem Life.

The Woman Who Had Just Moved In—"The first thing we want to do is to tear down those old curtains those people have left." Her Husband—"It seems you have no reverence for the shades of the departed."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Genuine Thing—Sturges had been visiting without any other member of the family. The evening after his return his little sister asked him if he had said his prayers every night. "No, not once," replied Sturges; "I had a really-true vacation."—Judge.

The Father—"That young man who used to call on you and stay so late in the night, I understand?" The Daughter—"Yes, papa; and think of it! His boat has been disabled! The last I heard of him he was being towed in." "Well, don't let me see him around here all hours of the night, or you will see him being towed out."—Yonkers Statesman.

ABYSSINIAN TROOPS.

Dirty Uniforms, Still Dirtier Bodies, and Quarantined.

The Abyssinian soldier's ordinary dress is not very attractive. It consists of a white linen shirt down to his knees and a pair of tight linen trousers to half way down his calf. Over this he wears a belt of folded linen, and, as a rule, a "shamma," or white cotton sheet, draped around him. None of these garments are ever washed, so that they rapidly assume a dingy brown hue; and as no native ever washes himself, and his only toilet consists in rubbing butter into his hair once a fortnight, the aroma from a large body of men is not precisely pleasant. No shoes, stockings, or head covering are worn. The officers and all who can afford it wear a shamma, with a broad red stripe, called a "jane," and on high days and festive occasions all varieties of cloths are produced, of all colors in the rainbow. Cloaks of blue, red, green, yellow or violet, ornamented with rough embroidery, leopard skins, sheep skins, and even lion skins, are worn on such days by the officers and small chiefs, and on these occasions the army presents a noble show.

Any man who has killed a lion or an elephant, or has distinguished himself much in battle, wears an aureole of lion's mane on his head, and for each five men he has killed he wears a silver band on his sword scabbard. The highest recompense for valor is a sort of velvet top-hat ornamented with silver. The sword is worn on the right-hand side, and are very much curved, almost sickle-shaped, and sharpened on both edges. These are used for everything, from killing people down to cutting off mouthfuls of beefsteak. The rifles are of every sort of single loader (except Martini-Henrys) and a great many repeating rifles were taken from the Italians at the battle of Adua in 1896; but, as far as we could find out, their musketry would be improved considerably by a bit of regular target practice.

As for the men themselves, they are tough and sturdy, but not big; their skin is of the color of mud, and their features and hair distinctly negroid, although they have straight noses, as a rule.—London Globe.

JAMES MADISON'S DIPLOMA.

Splendid Record of Future President's Scholarship.

A valuable relic came to light in the transfer of the treasures of the congressional library to its beautiful new building. Far down in the chaotic mass of engravings, maps, old newspapers and various productions of the brains and pencils of long ago, was found a piece of parchment, yellow with age, which every American will be interested to read about, and every son of Princeton anxious to see. It is a historic document—the college diploma of James Madison, the fourth president of the United States.

In spite of its great age—126 years—this memento of pre-revolutionary time is as perfect as it was on the 7th day of October, 1771, when it was proudly received by the young patriot from the hands of the famous Dr. Witherspoon, then president of the college of New Jersey—soon to be a signer of the declaration of independence—of whom John Adams said: "He is as high a son of liberty as any man in America."

Every letter of the quaint Latin in which the diploma was engraved stands out on the old parchment as clearly as the noted deeds of its signers upon the war records of their country. Dark clouds were gathering around their heads. "The crash of surrounding arms" was soon to be brought to the ears of tutors and students whose names make dear to us the annals of the revolution.

James Madison was already deeply moved by the controversies between the colonies and the mother country. In the patriotic excitement of the time "The American Whig Society" was formed in Nassau hall, and Madison, at the age of 18, was one of its principal founders. With other students, dressed in black, he burned while the college bell tolled, a letter to the merchants of New York to the merchants of Philadelphia announcing the breaking of an agreement not to import English goods.

In his zeal to win his diploma the youthful patriot nearly ruined his health. He entered in 1768 the College of New Jersey—the name Princeton, bears its charter of 1746—and by allowing himself for a long period only three hours' sleep out of the 24, completed the course in three years. Dr. Witherspoon remarked to Jefferson his labors student that he never knew him to do or say an indecent thing. Young Madison was one of the best orators in the college. He was so broken down by overstudy that the programme for "Commencement day, September 25, 1771," ends with this line:

"Mr. James Madison was excused from taking part in the exercises." The future president stood very high in his studies. The bit of parchment which he so gallantly won and which has just come to light, reads, freely translated, as follows:

President and Curators of the College of New Jersey, to all and sundry who read these letters. GREETING IN THE LORD.

Be it known that it pleases us with due authority committed to us by JAMES MADISON, competing candidate in the first degree of arts, approved by the faculty of the college, and degree of bachelor of the liberal arts, of which the seal of the College of New Jersey affixed to this parchment, and our names subscribed bear witness.

Dated Nassau Hall, 7th day of October, Year of Our Lord 1771.

The signers are President Joannes Witherspoon, Curators Gulielmus Franklin, Richard Stockton, Georgeus Bryan, Gulielmus P. Smith, Joannes Rodgers, Gulielmus Livingston, Jacobus Caldwell and Jeremiah Halsey.

Gulielmus, or William, Franklin, was the son of rare Ben Franklin, and all the others were more or less famous.

Suspended from the diploma by a foot of green ribbon, only slightly faded, is the great round seal of the college, impressed on a paper star. This was made by placing two square pieces of paper together, the ribbon passing between them. The seal was then sewn to the ribbon by silk thread, which is still tight, strong and glossy. There is a faint trace of red on the rim of the seal; the ink has faded out; the letters and design are perfectly distinct after more than a century and a quarter.

There were only 12 graduates in Madison's class, but several attained eminence. Madison's great talent, lofty patriotism, thorough scholarship and intense zeal to serve his country impelled him forward to the illustrious place he filled so acceptably for two terms. He retired to private life in 1817, and died in 1836, aged 85.

The ancient diploma, so fortunately restored to view, will be carefully preserved as an incentive to youth, a reminder of a noble man, and an heirloom from a president whose memory is venerated by all Americans.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Is a Very Bad Day.

"Doctor," said Mr. Spudds, "my insomnia is much worse now than it ever was before." "Indeed," replied Dr. Paresis. "Yes, sir, it is. Why I can't even sleep when it is time to get up."—Stray Stories.

What It Was.

The matrimonial market has "got a move on itself." We've had no less than a half-dozen marriages in the last two months, and still "there are others." The young people seem to be acting upon the idea of pushing a good thing along. Already they have leaked out that Miss— has been doing more than the usual amount of her shopping, preparatory to her coming wedding. The season gives promise of a very live market, and proves conclusively that wheat is not the only thing there.

There is a little house of worship in the First ward known as the First ward Baptist church. Its present pastor, Rev. W. E. Glover, took charge of it at a time when its friends were few, but he has worked unceasingly for its interests. It was quite the thing for city folks last fall and winter to make frequent visits thither to witness their literary exercises. It will soon be more popular than ever, for the faithful are going to erect a new house of worship on the site of the old one.

The infant of Mr. Ed Johnson was buried Sunday.

The funeral of Miss Hattie Gray took place yesterday from the residence, on North Ninth street, Rev. G. H. Burks conducting the obsequies in the presence of a host of sorrowing friends, who followed the beautiful casket to its last resting place in Oak Grove.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.

Thieves Run Away From The Gardner Residence.

Last night about 11 o'clock, burglars attempted to break into the residence of Mrs. Gardner, on West Jefferson street. A noise was heard there, and she caused them to flee.
 A bucket was found around under a rear window, where they had attempted to get in.

WARMER AGAIN.

The Thermometer Soars Into The Nineties.

The highest point reached by the thermometer yesterday was 92 degrees, which rendered it very unpleasant to be out. There was a good attendance at the churches, however, and the evening was quite pleasant. The lowest point reached today was 61 degrees.

CALLED MEETING.

The School Board to Meet Tonight
 to Take Up School Matters.

There will probably be a called meeting of the board of education this evening at the city hall, to take some action relative to the crowded condition of some of the schools, and to hear a report from Supt. Katter-john through the building committee.

The call will likely be issued this afternoon, and when the board acts, provision will be made to relieve the crowded condition of the schools.

STOLE MONEY.

Last night thieves entered a house at Tenth and Clay and stole about $16 from the inmates. There is no clue, and the names of the victims could not be learned.

PECULIAR POISONS.

GENERATED IN THE HUMAN BODY.

The Result of Imperfect Digestion of Food.

Every living thing, plant or animal, contains within itself the germs of certain decay and death.

In the human body these germs of disease and death (called by scientists "Pomaces"), are usually the result of imperfect digestion of food;
 the result of indigestion or dyspepsia.

The stomach, from abuse, weakness, does not promptly and thoroughly digest the food. The result is a heavy, sodden mass which ferments (the first process of decay) poisoning the blood, making it thin, weak, and lacking in red corpuscles;
 poisoning the brain causing headaches and pain in the eyes.

Bad digestion irritates the heart, causing palpitation and finally bringing on disease of this very important organ.

Poor digestion poisons the kidneys, causing Bright's disease and diabetes.

And this is so because every organ and every nerve depend upon the stomach alone for nourishment and weak digestion shows itself not only in loss of appetite and flesh, but in weak nerves and muddy complexion.

The great English scientist, Huxley, said the best start in life is a sound stomach. Weak stomachs fail to digest food properly, because they lack the proper quantity of digestive acids (lactic and hydrochloric) and peptogenic products; the most sensible remedy in all cases of indigestion is to take after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they supply in a pleasant, harmless form all the elements that weak stomachs lack.

The regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure every form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

They increase flesh, insure pure blood, strong nerves, a bright eye and clear complexion, because all these result only from wholesome food well digested.

Nearly all druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50 cents full sized package or by mail enclosing price to Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.,
 but ask your druggist first.

 Christian and W. E. Cave, of the First Presbyterian church. The pall bearers were: Geo. Rook, W. D.
 Greer, Jno. H. Burnett, Ell Guthrie,
 H. E. Thompson, J. E. Williamson,
 J. L. Betshares and Joe T. B. hop.
 The interment was at Oak Grove.

SPEAK AT PRINCETON.
 Candidates Wheeler and Reeves
 Open in Caldwell County.

Candidates Wheeler and Reeves,
 for congress in this district, speak at Princeton today. Mr. Wheeler went up on the train this morning, and Mr. Reeves was doubtless already there.

With this debate Mr. Wheeler's regular campaign opens, and there will be joint debates from now until the election.

EMERY WHEEL BROKE.

Max Field Painfully Injured at the Furniture Factory.

An emery wheel burst at the furniture factory this forenoon, and a fragment of it struck Max Field, a workman, in the jaw, painfully injuring him.

Other parts of it flew in different directions, but, fortunately, none of them struck any of the other workmen.

DIED AT FORT THOMAS.

A dispatch reached the city this morning addressed to C. E. Brown, Milan, Ky., a small settlement in the county, stating that his son had died in the hospital at Fort Thomas, and asking what to do with the remains.
 The dispatch was sent out, and nothing further is known of it.

COMPREHENSIVE.

A Memphis traveling man just in from a trip to interior Mississippi points brings a copy of a letterhead used by a country merchant in a remote district. It reads as follows:

"Blank & Co., dealers in furniture, hardware, groceries, drugs, coffins, febacco, snuff, fruits, dry goods, saddles, nails, candles, soaps, cider, vinegar, groceries, needles and threads, clothing, hats, caps, boots, shoes, country produce bought and sold, agents for the Life Insurance company, will also take your measure for tailor-made suits, lively stable in connection." And then in parenthesis:
 "Mrs. Blank takes boarders."

The drummer says he expects to find the enterprising Blank & Co. selling steamboats on his next visit.—
